

DALITZ MEMORIAL MEETING

Saturday 3 June 2006, University of Oxford

There will be a meeting in Oxford, on 3 June 2006, to celebrate the life and work of Professor R. H. Dalitz.

The Memorial Day will be in two parts. There will be talks in the morning in the Department of Physics, where former colleagues and collaborators will pay tribute to Dick's various contributions to theoretical particle physics. In the afternoon there will be a meeting in All Souls College, which will be devoted to more personal reflections.

All are very welcome to attend. It would be helpful for the organisers if you would let us know in advance of your intention to attend (e- mail: margaret@thphys.ox.ac.uk).

Frank Close, Subir Sarkar, Mike Teper (Convener)

Further information will be posted on:
